

Built Environment Communication and Skills

NBD1100

Professional negotiation

01 Win-win outcome

02 A give and take process

You can simply impress your audience and add a unique zing.

03 Long-term effects

04 Stages of negations

Win-win outcome

dealing with conflicting values

compromising on your ideal outcome

maintain good working relationships

A give and take process involving two or more parties seeking to reach an agreement that settles a work related matter of concern or resolves a conflict.

Long-term effects

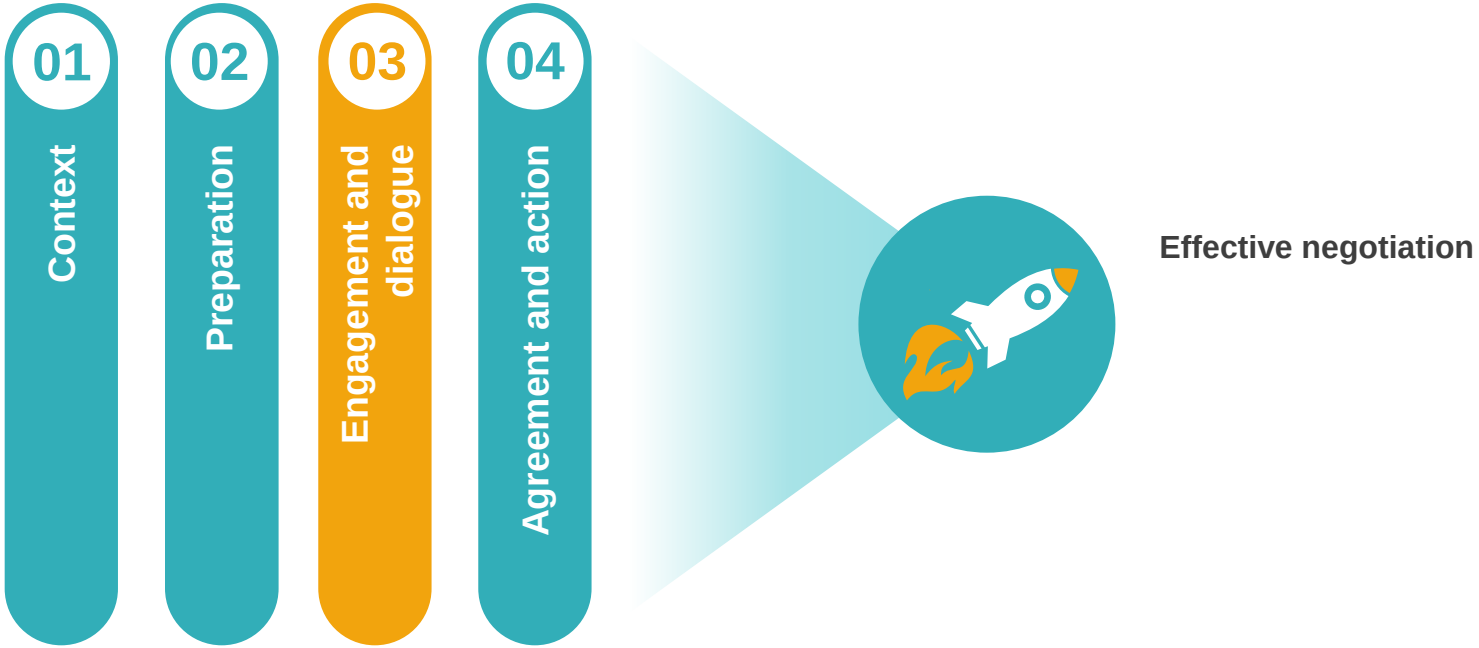

Insert the title of your subtitle Here

- Resolve interpersonal conflicts
- Process improvements
- Transform a disconnected stakeholder into a satisfied stakeholder

- Qualitative and quantitative measures

Stages of negotiation

Context

- Big picture
- Why resolving this particular matter is important
- Scenarios

Preparation

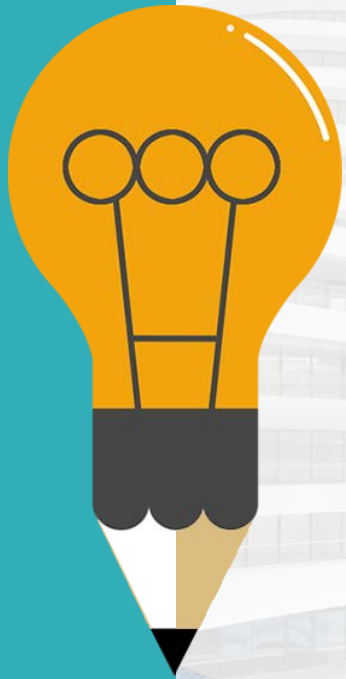

- Aim(s)
- Facts; information
- Flexibility
- Relationships
- History
- Consequences (impacts, benefits, risks, etc.)
- Attitude (open mind)

Engagement and dialogue

- Dialogue not debate
- Clear about the position of both sides
- Respect
- Seek understanding
- Explore alternatives
- Be constructive
- Identity common ground
- Document progress

Agreement and action

- Document
- Copy to all parties
- Check agreement